ABOUT TONY

Tony is the Managing Director of Drew & Napier's Intellectual Property department, and a Director in our Dispute Resolution department. He also heads our Healthcare & Life Sciences Practice. Tony is currently representing leading biotech and pharmaceutical companies such as Sanofi-Aventis and Novartis; government statutory boards such as Sentosa Development Corporation, and Health Promotion Board; as well as listed companies such as PT Bayan Resources Tbk and Manhattan Resources Ltd.

Tony is a litigator with an active court practice as an advocate. He has acted as lead counsel in many complex matters, including numerous patent infringement cases. He is experienced in intellectual property litigation and enforcement including patent, trade mark, and copyright. His civil and commercial litigation practice includes banking litigation and contract disputes.

Tony was appointed by the Intellectual Property Office of Singapore (IPOS) as an IP Adjudicator to hear disputes at IPOS for a two-year term from April 2019. He is also the President of the International Association for the Protection of Intellectual Property (AIPPI) – Singapore Group, a member of the Law Society's Inquiry Committee and Disciplinary Tribunal, and a member of the Examination Board at IPOS for registered patent agents.

As a testament to his expertise in the field, Tony co-authored the Singapore chapter of Global Pharmacovigilance Laws & Regulations: The Essential Reference, which has been described as a "ground-breaking book" and a "landmark guide" published by the US based Food and Drug Law Institute. He also co-authored the Singapore chapter of the inaugural Patent Enforcement in the UK and Trans-Pacific Countries published by Globe Law and Business in 2021. The book is an essential guide for private practitioners, in-house lawyers and other professional in the Trans-Pacific region. Additionally,

Tony co-wrote the Singapore section of the Chapter on Countries with Historical Connections with UK Registered Designs in Russell-Clarke & Howe on Industrial Designs, 10th Edition, Sweet & Maxwell, 2022.

Under his guidance and leadership, Drew & Napier clinched double win at the Managing IP Asia-Pacific Awards 2025, winning both the Singapore Patent Disputes Firm of the Year and Singapore Trademark Disputes Firm of the Year. This is the fifth double win the IP department won at the annual MIP Asia-Pacific Awards.

EXPERIENCE

Tony has been involved in many high profile matters. Here are just a few recent cases:

- Acted as an IP Adjudicator at the Intellectual Property Office of Singapore to adjudicate a significant Trade Mark matter involving two well-known watchmakers. In Rolex S.A. v FMTM Distribution Ltd [2020] SGIPOS 6, Rolex S.A.'s opposition against an Application Mark filed by the Franck Muller Group was allowed on grounds of confusing similarity and passing off under the Trade Marks Act. As the opposition was successful, registration of the Application Mark was refused.
- Successfully acted for Ila Technologies Pte Ltd, an industry leader in state-of-the-art lab grown diamond technology, in a patent infringement suit commenced by Element Six Technologies Ltd, a subsidiary of the De Beers Group, in HC/Suit No. 26/2016, CA 41/2020 and CA 96/2020, by obtaining a full victory for Ila Technologies in a ground breaking judgement with the full revocation of both patents asserted by Element Six. In addition to revocation, the Court of Appeal also overturned the High Court's findings on infringement. Successfully obtained costs against Element Six of more than S$3m.
- Acted as lead counsel for Dyson Technology Limited ("Dyson UK") and Dyson Singapore Pte. Limited ("Dyson SG") in a patent infringement matter in HC/OC 661/2023, for its highly popular and commercially successful Dyson Airwrap. Related litigation is ongoing in multiple jurisdictions.
- Acted as lead counsel for a Fortune 10 company in a high value patent infringement claim commenced by Salutica Allied Solutions Sdn Bhd and successfully struck out the claim, without prejudice to Salutica's right to refile. This action is part of a global litigation concerning Bluetooth technology.
- Acted as lead counsel for Eisai Co Ltd and its related companies in a patent linkage matter in HC/OC 778/2023. This matter involves 7 patents, the pharmaceutical HALAVEN and related manufacturing processes.
- Acted as lead counsel for Sums Resources Pte Ltd and Dato Low Tuck Kwong in HC/S 736/2021 involving one of the few undersea internet cable networks connecting Singapore and Indonesia, and raises issues regarding the telecommunications licensing regime in Singapore. The claim amount is over USD21m.
