TASHA WIE

ABOUT TASHA

Tasha is an Associate Director in the Corporate and Mergers & Acquisitions Practice Group and is also a member of the Employment and Healthcare Practice Groups.

Tasha's practice encompasses advising on a broad range of transactional and advisory matters, with a particular focus on mergers and acquisitions, employment law, and healthcare-related regulatory and commercial work.

In her corporate practice, Tasha acts on a wide range of mergers & acquisitions and general corporate transactions, supporting clients through the full lifecycle of deals, including structuring, due diligence, and documentation. In addition to transactional work, Tasha also regularly advises on day-to-day corporate matters, including shareholder arrangements, corporate governance, regulatory compliance, and commercial issues.

Tasha also has extensive experience in employment law, routinely advising a diverse client base comprising multinational corporations, small and medium enterprises, and high-net-worth individuals on the full spectrum of employment-related matters from cradle to grave. This includes employment contracts and policies, employee exits and retrenchments, union-representation, workplace disputes, and employee share incentive and equity arrangements.

In addition, Tasha advises on healthcare regulatory and commercial issues, acting for both multinational corporations and government-linked entities on matters within the healthcare sector.
