NICHOLAS TAN CHOI CHUAN

ABOUT NICHOLAS

Nicholas' practice focuses on takeovers, mergers and acquisitions, foreign investments (both inbound and outbound), and corporate restructurings. He also advises clients on equity capital markets. His expertise spans a wide range of industries, including education, healthcare, energy and power, manufacturing, technology and telecommunications.

With close to 2 decades of experience in domestic and cross-border transactions, Nicholas is recognised for his strengths in drafting and advisory work. Recently, he has been advising Malaysian clients on their expansion into Asian countries, particularly in jurisdictions such as Japan, Thailand, and Indonesia. This has been part of the increasing outbound investment trend in Malaysia, and it demonstrates his capability to handle complex cross-border transactions and to adeptly navigate the legal and commercial dynamics of multiple jurisdictions.

Nicholas is actively involved in deal structuring and leading negotiations, ensuring alignment between clients' strategic business objectives and the relevant legal framework. His ability to integrate legal expertise with a deep understanding of management and financial considerations – enhanced through his MBA – enables him to provide well-rounded advice that addresses both commercial and legal priorities to achieve optimal outcomes.

Nicholas has been ranked in several leading international legal directories for his Corporate / M&A expertise over the last 10 years. Client testimonials highlight Nicholas' capabilities with comments such as:

- “...has strong drafting skills and the ability to adapt to circumstances to ensure the success of a transaction.” (Chambers Asia-Pacific 2023)
- “...he possesses the ability to provide good and practical solutions to ensure commercial objectives are achieved, by ensuring the smooth completion of transactions.” (Chambers Asia-Pacific 2024)
- “He is highly responsive and provides incisive and concise advice.” – (Chambers Asia-Pacific 2025)

Nicholas advises a broad spectrum of clients, including Fortune 500 corporations and family-owned enterprises, on complex legal matters across domestic and international jurisdictions. Prominent clients include Saudi Aramco (oil and gas), Sony Interactive Entertainment (gaming), Monash University (education), and Scientex Berhad (manufacturing).

In addition to his practice, Nicholas serves as an officer of the International Bar Association (IBA) Asia Pacific Regional Forum Committee and acts as a key contact for the firm with the World Law Group (WLG). He is also a member of the Association of International Energy Negotiators (AIEN). He actively collaborates with legal practitioners globally, participating in webinars, conferences, and meetings to exchange insights on legal and industry developments.

Nicholas is fluent in English, Malay, and Mandarin, both spoken and written.

He is deeply passionate about corporate governance, particularly shareholder activism, and dedicates considerable time to researching its development within the corporate environment in Malaysia. Outside of his professional endeavors, Nicholas enjoys running as a personal hobby.
