JOHN FRANGOS

ABOUT JOHN

John Frangos is a partner and director of Tilleke & Gibbins' dispute resolution and litigation group. Based in Bangkok, he works with clients and the firm's disputes team on complex cases across Southeast Asia. He is especially active in leading the firm's aviation practice as well as its compliance and investigations practice.

On the basis of his expertise in the aviation industry, coupled with his exceptional client service, John is ranked as a leading aviation and transport practitioner by Chambers Asia-Pacific, The Legal 500 Asia Pacific, and Asialaw Profiles. Clients have described him as "absolutely one of the best aviation lawyers in Thailand," and as "super responsive, incredibly knowledgeable, and really focused on getting the best outcome as quickly as possible" (Chambers Asia-Pacific 2021).

With many years' experience in Thailand and Vietnam, John brings strong knowledge of local business practices and customs. He also has a deep understanding of the region's political and economic landscapes, which shape the legal environment that businesses must navigate.

John serves as the Thailand chapter head for the New York State Bar Association and a committee leader for the Aerospace Council of the American Chamber of Commerce in Thailand. He was previously a commissioner on the Anti-Corruption Commission for the Thailand chapter of the International Chamber of Commerce. In that capacity, he assisted the Thai government by providing his expertise and comments on its anticorruption laws. John has also worked with the Vietnamese government to propose amendments to regulations on aircraft registration and repossession.

John is admitted to the New York bar.
